ountry.
The United States steamer Dispatch received sailing orders and dropped down from the yard to-day and sailed for Key West to take part in the coming naval drill at Pensacola. She has on board a large quantity of torpedoes and other munitions for the vessels engaged in the drill.

The wrecking-steamer Resolute has returned from the wreck of the schooner Leona off Hog island, and reports the schooner gone to pieces and nothing to be saved. The wreck has been abandoned. Mr. William A. Graves, of this city, has been stricken with paralysis.

The german clubs of Norfolk and Portsmouth all give their winding-up festivities to-night, Lent being at hand. Commodore W. T. Truxtun will leave the command of the navy-yard to-morrow, being retired, and take u his residence in Norfolk, Captain George Brown, the present executive officer of the yard, will take command until further orders.
